Scholars Unlimited: Impact Populations

Youth who were involved in Scholars
Unlimited programing become lifelong learners, achieve personal success, and grow into positive and active members of the community.

LONG TERM: COMMUNITY REACH

NEAR TERM: COMMUNITY REACH

WHO ELSE IS IMPACTED BY THE PROGRAM

WHO THE PROGRAM IS ALSO OPEN TO SERVING

WHO THE PROGRAM IS DESIGNED TO SERVE Adults in the community have employment opportunities to become SU staff and support SU's work.

Any students who attend schools that are partnered with SU and who could benefit from developing positive relationships with peers and adults and/or having a safe space to go after school or in the summer.

Students in grades K-5 at lowerincome, less-resourced schools in the Metro Denver area that have partnered with Scholars Unlimited, and who could benefit from strengthening their fundamental literacy skills and building/applying socialemotional learning concepts.

Families who

need a safe space

for their children

to be while they are working.

